A very happy Easter (or if you want to go hardcore, as the Eastern Christians say: “Christ is risen”, and you respond “ Indeed He is risen”---and today is also Easter according to the Julian calendar) to one and all from all of us here at St. Joan of Arc Church, to all of our regular, supporting and devoted parishioners, and to all who might be in the area visiting loved ones at this time of year.....on Good Friday we prayed for all levels of the Church, society, and government, and I urge all to please continue praying for all, that God’s Kingdom may come both in us and through us.....we welcome youngsters to the table of Holy Communion for the first time beginning next week -end, at the 11:00 AM Mass and on April 30 and at the 5:00 pm Mass on April 29.....parishioners are welcome to take the Blessed Easter water from the font at the altar, and to use it in blessings at home and in the family.....simply bring a little glass or plastic container that has a tight lid.....we welcome Robert and Nancy Pfleuger into the Church this Easter..... thanks to Dr. Mike Pensenstadler and the RCIA team for their ministry.....many thanks to all of our parishioners for their tremendous support at every turn, especially in the collection for the soldiers and mailing of the gift bags.....sorry , forgot to mention among our talented teens who starred in Bethel Park High School’s “Schreck”, Daniel Franzak, Mikayla Isenberg, Cameron Carroll, also, Evan Aronhart was quietly behind the scenes managing the stage crew.....

Scripture Reflection

Saint John Chrysostom, Archbishop of Constantinople

The Paschal Sermon

The Catechetical Sermon of St. John Chrysostom is read during Matins of Pascha. If any man be devout and love God, let him enjoy this fair and radiant triumphal feast. If any man be a wise servant, let him rejoicing enter into the joy of his Lord. If any have labored long in fasting, let him now receive his recompense. If any have wrought from the first hour, let him today receive his just reward. If any have come at the third hour, let him with thankfulness keep the feast. If any have arrived at the sixth hour, let him have no misgivings; because he shall in nowise be deprived thereof. If any have delayed until the ninth hour, let him draw near, fearing nothing. If any have tarried even until the eleventh hour, let him, also, be not alarmed at his tardiness; for the Lord, who is jealous of his honor, will accept the last even as the first; he gives rest unto him who comes at the eleventh hour, even as unto him who has wrought from the first hour. And he shows mercy upon the last, and cares for the first; and to the one he gives, and upon the other he bestows gifts. And he both accepts the deeds, and welcomes the intention, and honors the acts and praises the offering. Wherefore, enter you all into the joy of your Lord; and receive your reward, both the first, and likewise the second. You rich and poor together, hold high festival. You sober and you heedless, honor the day. Rejoice today, both you who have fasted and you who have disregarded the fast. The table is full-laden; feast ye all sumptuously. The calf is fatted; let no one go hungry away. Enjoy ye all the feast of faith: Receive ye all the riches of loving-kindness. let no one bewail his poverty, for the universal kingdom has been revealed. Let no one weep for his iniquities, for pardon has shown forth from the grave. Let no one fear death, for the Savior's death has set us free. He that was held prisoner of it has annihilated it. By descending into Hell, He made Hell captive. He embittered it when it tasted of His flesh. And Isaiah, foretelling this, did cry: Hell, said he, was embittered, when it encountered Thee in the lower regions. It was embittered, for it was abolished. It was embittered, for it was mocked. It was embittered, for it was slain. It was embittered, for it was overthrown. It was embittered, for it was fettered in chains. It took a body, and met God face to face. It took earth, and encountered Heaven. It took that which was seen, and fell upon the unseen. O Death, where is your sting? O Hell, where is your victory? Christ is risen, and you are overthrown. Christ is risen, and the demons are fallen. Christ is risen, and the angels rejoice. Christ is risen, and life reigns. Christ is risen, and not one dead remains in the grave. For Christ, being risen from the dead, is become the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep. To Him be glory and dominion unto ages of ages. Amen.

About St. John Chrysostom:

St. John Chrysostom (The Golden Tongue) was born at Antioch in about the year 347 into the family of a military-commander, spent his early years studying under the finest philosophers and rhetoricians and was ordained a deacon in the year 381 by the bishop of Antioch Saint Meletios. In 386 St. John was ordained a priest by the bishop of Antioch, Flavian. Over time, his fame as a holy preacher grew, and in the year 397 with the demise of Archbishop Nektarios of Constantinople—successor to Sainted Gregory the Theologian—Saint John Chrysostom was summoned from Antioch for to be the new Archbishop of Constantinople. Exiled in 404 and after a long illness because of the exile, he was transferred to Pitius in Abkhazia where he received the Holy Eucharist, and said, "Glory to God for everything!", falling asleep in the Lord on 14 September 407.

The Youth Group will have their Breakfast Buffet next Sunday from 8:30 am - 12:00. and also will be selling their delicious hoagies after all Masses.

The men's group is ministry that seeks to encourage and form men to be the Saints our Lord has called us to be. It does this by having the men work together through questions about God, the Church, our faith, etc. in a workbook. The workbook pulls out excerpts from Scripture, the catechism, and the everyday experiences of men trying follow Jesus. The meeting for April 17th at 7pm in the Bible study room on the third floor. There is a relaxed atmosphere where friendships and learning can take place. Snacks and drinks are provided. Come and join us.
