Scripture Reflection

Light the Paschal candle ring, ring sonorous bells, lift every voice in song to praise and honor our risen Lord Jesus Christ! The Church catholic, so often on different sheets of music, intones one joyous shout on this day of days: "Christ is Risen! Alleluia!"

"On the first day of the week, at early dawn," women come to our Lord's tomb, prepared to anoint him with perfume only to find the stone rolled away, two men in radiant robes, and words that now echo across the centuries: "Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen." Hearing those words, the women rush from the tomb and attempt to spread the good news. Sadly, Luke tells us their words at first received as "an idle tale." But soon, the word spreads, frightened disciples reunite with the risen Christ, and a message of love's triumph over death moves from Jerusalem to Judea to Galilee and ultimately the entire world.

So say it with me once again: "Christ is risen! Alleluia!" We've sung it, we've said it, we believe it, we long to hear it, but how do we embrace this good news making it our very own? And having made it our story, how can we best share it with others? In other words, we must ask again the question from last week: How do we find ourselves in this story so that the message becomes the life and light in our lives?

Paul answers that question in his letter to the Colossians. "So if you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds in things that are above, not on things that are on earth, for you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life is revealed with him in glory."

Easter both celebrated that Christ is risen, while inviting us to join him in experiencing resurrection life now, and the promise of life eternal in God's coming Kingdom. We are, to borrow St. Paul's words, "risen with Christ". So powerful is this idea that the risen life of Christ can be ours in this life that Paul's often speaks of being "in Christ." He believed, and invites us to believe this Easter day that we are, by faith, risen with Christ. What does that mean and what difference will it make in how we live our lives?

So let the day go on as it has begun. Raise the chorus and ring every bell because Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again! Choose to move beyond faith that easily falls off your lips to faith that rises from deep within your soul. Seek those things that have the risen Christ's seal of life about them; things like meting out mercy, giving grace, fostering forgiveness, creating community, pursuing prayer, and living love. Make this Easter a day of new beginnings for you and in so doing, making the future much better than the past.

Rise to your feet, risen with Christ. Alleluia! Amen!
