Just a reminder! There will not be a Fish Fry in January. Our next fish fry will be February 5, 2010. Wishing you and your families a very Merry Christmas and a happy, healthy New Year.

From the Pastor's Desk

Many of you know how I kid about the devil working overtime on week-ends to cause bad weather at Mass times....well, sure enough, the ice storm began at 7:00 AM last Sunday, enough to disrupt most of the morning and endanger many people; there are six days in the week on which it may storm, why storm on the Sabbath?....I hope that parishioners will avail themselves of the sacrament of Reconciliation, especially on Monday from 1:30-3:00 PM when extra priests will be on hand...offerings at the crib this year, as usual, will be sent to St. Theresa Orphanage in Zagreb, Croatia....All of our beloved departed are remembered at Mass per request of the flower fund....O come, O come, O dayspring from on high, and cheer us by thy drawing night, remove the darkness that blinds us, and free us from our sins, O Savior Come!

Father Pribonic

Scripture Reflection

A shared secret makes a tight bond, doesn't it? Fraternal societies like the Masons, or religious sects like the Mormons, are mainstream public communities in so many ways. But within those circles, away from the eyes and ears of the ordinary public, there are some secrets known and rites shared, only among the initiated insiders. Shared secrets; tight bonds. Like college fraternities who protect the knowledge of their secrets handshake, or the traditions of their initiation ceremonies, there is something powerful about holding a whispered knowledge between friends. And the smaller the circle sharing the secret, the more powerful the bond.

So imagine the feeling of intimacy and relief between Mary and Elizabeth when they greeted each other, as reported by Saint Luke in our Gospel reading today. They were soul sisters, these two, in a secret sorority with only two living members. Of course, long before the time of Elizabeth and Mary, like Big Sister Alumni from the Old testament, this elite sorority included woman named Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel, and Hannah. And the common initiation bond uniting the stories of all these sisters was a pregnancy that happened due to the direct intervention of God, giving birth to a son whose life would shape a chapter of holy history. Now we believe that every birth is a miracle, and every conception is touched by God; but these few women in these pages of scripture were invited by God to share on an even more exceptional birth, to partner with God in the nurture of a son who would serve as a hinge upon which the huge doors of history would turn.

Thank you: To the Colizoli and Mattola Families for the gift of a new ciborium, to Jan and Larry Guess for the gift of the Priest's stole, to David Henney Funeral Home for providing the 2010 calendars, our great parishioners who donated to the flower fund and our great parishioners who participated in the Giving Tree and our great parishioners who brought their envelopes to the Rectory.

Class for Parents of the First Child Baptism: Monday, January 25, 2010 at 7:00 PM in the Rectory. Please call to register.

Father Rays Quotes: As a famous author once wrote in the classic The Christmas Carol; "God Bless us, everyone!"
