Scripture Reflection

Some of John’s disciples had fallen into a dispute with Jews about purification; so they came to him and said, “Rabbi, there was a man with you, on the other side of the Jordan, to whom you gave witness. Here he is, baptizing and crowds are flocking to him.” John’s answer was “A man can have only what God gives him.” You yourselves can testify that I said: “ I am not the Messiah I have been sent as his Forerunner. It is the bridegroom to whom the bride belongs. The bridegrooms friend (best man) stands by and listens to him, and is overjoyed at hearing the bridegrooms voice. This joy, this perfect joy, is now mine. As he grows greater, I must grow less”(John 3:24-30)

Now the daylight will start to become a little longer each day. The winter solstice is here; the early Church used this annual phenomenon to have people think about John the Baptist’s act of humility. It should be true of all of us, as the days grow longer, we can open our hearts and minds more and more in that way, we truly become Christians.

Dear Joan:

I read in the bulletin last week that the Bishop renewed the Pastor’s assignment for another six years. May I ask: Was there a signing bonus?

Signed: Silent Agent

Dear Silent Agent:

Yes, the Pastor signed with the Bishop for another six years, but he says the only signing bonus was the wonderful people and staff of our Parish! Merry Christmas and Happy New Year One and ALL!!!!!!

LETTER OF THANKS - On your Youth Group "Day of Service" you came to my mom's rescue as you graciously gave of your time and strength to move some furniture out of her home (of 60 years). What you accomplished for my mother might have seemed like a small effort, but it was a step that she had to take. After you left, we spoke by phone and she said how this change toward her move had finally "hit home". I replied to her: "But what a beautiful first step it was. Your spirits upheld her spirit.

I thank God for the first meeting of the Youth Group you walked into and decided to stay. And I thank God that each one of you has allowed Him to come into your lives, and by that grace, you allow yourselves to reach out to others.

You probably feel that being part of the St. Joan of Arc Youth Group is normal. It is not. What you do and how you give is special and rare, as are each one of you. May God continue to watch over you, protect you, and inspire you to continue on the path laid before your feet. Lisa Catizone Heslop
