THANK YOU For Your Generosity.

Our Holy Father, Pope Francis has shared with us a message for our Lenten season which calls us to consider the real opportunity the Church offers us in these days which should be characterized by prayer, giving alms, and fasting. Pope Francis quotes Jesus from Matthew's gospel: "Because of the increase of iniquity, the love of many will grow cold" (24:12). The Holy Father reminds us:

"Love can also grow cold in our own communities. In the Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Gaudium, I sought to describe the most evident signs of this lack of love: selfishness and spiritual sloth, sterile pessimism, the temptation to self-absorption, constant warring among ourselves, and the worldly mentality that makes us concerned only for appearances, and thus lessens our missionary zeal."

Pope Francis continues to teach in answer to our question: What are we to do?

"Perhaps we see, deep within ourselves and all about us, the signs I have just described. But the Church, our Mother and Teacher ... offers us in the Lenten season the soothing remedy of prayer, almsgiving and fasting.

"By devoting more time to prayer, we enable our hearts to root out our secret lies and forms of self-deception, and then to find the consolation God offers. He is our Father and he wants us to live life well.

"Almsgiving sets us free from greed and helps us to regard our neighbor as a brother or sister. What I possess is never mine alone. How I would like almsgiving to become a genuine style of life for each of us! How I would like us, as Christians, to follow the example of the Apostles and see in the sharing of our possessions a tangible witness of the communion that is ours in the Church! ... When we give alms, we share in God's providential care for each of His children. If through me God helps someone today, will He not tomorrow provide for my own needs? For no one is more generous than God.

"Fasting weakens our tendency to violence; it disarms us and becomes an important opportunity for growth. On the one hand, it allows us to experience what the destitute and the starving have to endure. On the other hand, it expresses our own spiritual hunger and thirst for life in God. Fasting wakes us up. It makes us more attentive to God and our neighbor. It revives our desire to obey God, who alone is capable of satisfying our hunger."

With Pope Francis, I pray that these 40 days be a time for all of us to rekindle the flame of God's love in our hearts, in our families, and in our parish community.

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Joe

2018 PARISH SHARE PROGRAM

The Parish Share Program (PSP) is vital in continuing the work of the Church throughout the Diocese of Pittsburgh; and our parishioners' support of PSP is vital to the present and future health of St. Joan of Arc church. I realize that the On Mission for the Church Alive planning process has many parishioners concerned about the future. Please let me remind you that the proposed vision which we are working toward is to keep St. Joan of Arc church open for future generations, as part of a larger parish. Maintaining our parish now through your continued good stewardship. In last week's mail each parish family should have received a pledge card for the 2018 PSP. Please take a moment to consider your pledge, complete the pledge card, and return both the "Parish" and "Diocese" copies to the Parish Office. Help us work toward our goal of $89,963.00—every gift is important, both small and great. When we meet our goal, every additional dollar pledged and received stays in our parish.

I thank all of you for your careful and generous stewardship in sharing of your time, talent and treasure toward carrying out the mission of the Church right here at St. Joan's and throughout our region.

(Please return pledges by Sunday March 4.)

Scripture Reflection

Why do we always go to the desert? We see this example in Scripture time and time again. The Israelites wandered in the desert. King David and prophets were driven into the wilderness. And now Jesus is in the same place. Lent after Lent, we too are invited into a barren, desolate place. Why do we always go to the desert? Throughout Scripture, the desert is a place of testing. It's also a place of hiding and withdrawal. In the Old Testament, David fled into the wilderness to hide from Saul, Elijah from Jezebel, and Jonah from God! In other words, the desert is a place of "retreat." In Christian circles, we use the word to describe a spiritual weekend away. But its meaning comes from warfare, as we well know. To retreat means to draw back, to separate oneself from the fighting. Of course, a military retreat brings its own kind of "battle" -- the internal assessment of why the fighting went so poorly. As we enter into this Lenten season, we are invited to retreat into the desert with Jesus. Attending a day or weekend of reflection is a wonderful spiritual practice. This "desert spirituality," however, can fill all forty days. We can fulfill our Lenten resolutions with a purpose -- writing daily notes to family and friends can inspire new gratitude, every time we pass up that specific food item can be cause for intercession for deeper sufferings and privations of others. The Gospel tells us that "the Spirit drove him out into the desert." In other words, God wants us to be here. What feels uncomfortable is actually part of our spiritual journey. To be stretched, to be challenged, to confront our own areas of weakness -- these things are essential in our walk with God. This Lent, will you go to the desert?

Have a life-changing Lent! Starting Ash Wednesday (February 14), you'll receive daily emails with short inspirational videos from Matthew Kelly, practical tips to incorporate into your everyday life, and personal stories from Dynamic Catholic team members. Our lives change when our habits change. Your 40 days of Lent will be an incredibly transformative experience because you've learned simple yet powerful ways to become the person God created you to be. A Presentation on the Relics of the Saints: Have you ever wondered why Catholics display, and venerate the relics of the saints? Did you know that St. Anthony's Chapel in Pittsburgh is home to the largest collection of relics outside of Rome? Parishioner Christopher Reibold, aka The Saint Story Guy, is a Catholic writer, and storyteller. He presents the Saints of the Month segment on Archangel Radio's The Live Hour program, and he is a contributing writer, and reader, for WAOB Audio Theatre. His recently published book, the Saints at the Chapel: Thrilling Tales of Histories Holiest Heroes (Lambing Press), tells the stories of twenty saints whose relics are on display at St. Anthony's Chapel. On Sunday February 25 at 6:00PM at Saint Louise in the LeGras Hall conference center Christopher will speak about the history and importance of Saint Anthony's Chapel and share a couple of Saint stories.

Prayer Shawl Ministry - Mark your calendar for next month -6:30-8:30, March 20th to attend a 1st meeting of this year and share with us the many stories our members share of the blessings of the shawls/blankets. Hope to see our current members return and many new ones at this meeting. We are now able to reach a lot more members and welcome those that are not members of St. Joan of Arc or St. Louise de Marillac - our ministry is open to all. Any questions, call the office, 412-833-2400, and leave a message for me - Thank you all again, Karen Urbanowicz
